

SPARKLING

Veuve DeVile - 150ml $9 / Bottle $35

(France) How can this smashing French fizz be thus price? Creamy mouth filling with a touch of sweetness.

Villa Jolanda - 150ml $11 / Bottle $45

(Prosecca - Italy) Extra dry. Whilst clean and refreshingly dry has a surprisingly low acid, easy to drink.

Segura Viudas Brut Reserva Heredad - Bottle $75

(Spain) Literally "the dry reserve of kings". Buy one because it looks good and again and again because of the taste.

Veuve Fonrny & Fills Vertus - Bottle $90

(Champagne, France) Delicate dry blanc de blanc 100% chardonnay fruit. Top class bead, so cool it's hard to find. Low production premium cru three vintage blend.

WHITE

Howling Wolves - 150ml $9 / 250ml $13 / Bottle $35

(SSB - Margaret River WA) Fresh cut grass. Lemon and Zest lime, oily texture 100% Margaret River - uber refreshing.

Tomfoolery - 150ml $13 / 250ml $17 / Bottle $50

(Sauv Blanc - Barossa, South Australia) Sauv Blanc - Barossa, South Australia Sophisticated style, lemon lime citrus, hints of tropical fruit. Dry but not to the bone. From "cult" winemaker Ben Chipman.

Be Bortoli La Bossa - 150ml $9 / 250ml $12 / Bottle $35

(Pinot Grigio - NSW Regional blend) Vegan friendly, ages on lees 3 months to add weight and texture. A touch of Riesling and arneis add complexity to the pear flavour.

Schild - 150ml $10 / 250ml $14 / Bottle $40

(Moscato - Barossa, South Australia) The real deal - Muscat blanc and petits grains deliver the aroma of "A grape" that's it! Bitter sweet slight spritz in the mouth, easy drinking but not just sugar.

Journeys End - 150ml $12 / 250ml $16 / Bottle $50

(Chardonnay - Adelaide Hills, South Australia) Ben Riggs master winemaker balances old and new French oak to give sweet spice citrus fruit. Not overoaked!

ROSE

Debortoli Rose - 150ml $10 / 250ml $14 / Bottle $40

(King Valley - Victoria) Vegan - clean, dry, refreshing berry watermelon and a touch of spice.

Tomfoolery Trouble and Strife - 150ml $12 / 250ml $16 / Bottle $45

(Barossa Valley) 100% Cabernet Franc grape type, intense pink from only 2 hours skin contact. Strawberries and raspberries with herbaceous savoury notes and texture delivered from lees (dead yeast) contact.

Estandon - 150ml $15 / 250ml $19 / Bottle $60

(Provence France) Classic pale salmon, spicy strawberry, peach. Salivatingly dry and French.

RED WINE

Deen DeBoroli Master Blend - 150ml $9 / 250ml $13 / Bottle $35

(Multi region blend - shiraz, Durit, petit Verdot grape types)

A wow wine at a wow price “world beating” red case outclassed $350 wine in European competition. Plum, jam and smoky oak. Soft and full of flavoured.

Schild Estate - 150ml $12 / 250ml $16 / Bottle $50

(Cabernet - Barossa, South Australia) A mouthful of sweet berry, spice earth and fluffy tannin here, Barossa cabernet is magic most ends up in 389 and 707! Not this beauty.

Kalleske - 150ml $13 / 250ml $17 / Bottle $50

(Clarrys GSM - Barossa, South Australia) Organic vegan friendly.

Wine if the year twice!! Fruit driven, opulent, ripe berries and a touch if seasoned oak. Unbelievably good.

Discovery Road - 150ml $14 / 250ml $18 / Bottle $55

(Barossa, South Australia) Rob Gibson, Penfolds ex chief viticulturist for 17 years makes the most amazing blend from 6 grapes - grenachw, shiraz, merlot, primitive Tempranillo and mature. So many flavours “Drink Me” exclusive '15 vintage.

Discovery Road - 150ml $14 / 250ml $18 / Bottle $55

(Nero Davola - Barossa, South Australia) Think Italys version of shiraz. It's not the “blackdevil” but black grape of Avola the town in Sicily it's named after. Clean free run juice with texture and no harsh tannin.

Gibson Dirtman - 150ml $16 / 250ml $20 / Bottle $65

(Shiraz - Barossa, South Australia) Amazing medium body shiraz from 17 vintage, jammy redcurrent leading to soft velvet earthy tannins Great drinking now.

Third Reef - 150ml $14 / 250ml $18 / Bottle $50

(Pinot Noir - Great Southern, Western Australia) Ticks all the boxes, a touch of earth and forest floor with sweet and savoury note. Value from our own South West.

BEST RED WINE IN THE WORLD (Arguably)

Kellermeister Black Sash - Bottle $99

(Shiraz - Barossa, South Australia) 100 years cellar potential. 98 Halliday. Syrah Du Monde (France) Voted best Shiraz in the world for 2019. Let me breathe and I will reward you. This is that wine thats as you finish the last sip you wish you were just starting. Grainy, textural and already great.

Edizione 17 - Bottle $99

(15 vintage - Italian) Voted best Italian red - 3 years running, 99 points 4 years running. 5 grades from different regions. The syrup rich power and sweet invasion of fruit initially wow but as it developed sip by sip you realise there is tannin there. Magnificent.

Rossetti: 'Super Tuscan 2013' - Bottle $99

(Sangiovese 50% Merlot 30% Cabernet 20%) Giant family breaks the rules to deliver top wine under $100 in 2019. More evident oak and class than Edizione. Blows a $1,000 2013 Grange out of the water. Now and probably forth next three years.

